

Fall 2013 Basketball Skills Clinic

Former Classics AAU Basketball standout and current Paint Branch High School Girls Varsity Coach Rochelle Coleman is conducting an AAU level basketball skills development clinic program for Classics AAU club athletes to help them improve their skills.

Join Rochelle and her world class RAC Basketball trainers this Fall for early evening basketball skills sessions at Champions Fieldhouse in Rockville, MD.

Who: Co-ed Grades 2nd-8th/Ages 7-14

What: Basketball Skills Clinic with RAC Basketball

When: Tuesdays or Thursdays, September 10 - October 17, 6-7pm

Where: Champions Fieldhouse (30 Southlawn Court Rockville, MD 20850)

Why: To improve fundamental skills such as ball handling, footwork, and overall offensive skills to play better at the AAU level

Cost: $210 per Tuesday or Thursday six week session

To register go to www.racbasketball.com

Note: This is one of several training options Classics AAU Basketball arranges with select local area training groups for Classics players to attend to improve their skills and level of play! Please visit www.classicsbb.com for other possible training options if the specific times, days, location pose a conflict with your athlete's team practices or other family logistics/scheduling considerations.